

900 Howe Street

900 Howe Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, CANADA

THE PROJECT

A mid-size concrete structure of 110,000 square feet with four levels of underground parking. Major tenant is Alexander Reed Stenhouse Insurance Brokers.

900 Howe Street

THE TASK

To develop a first class office project, which could attract premier tenants to the fringe of the downtown core, at competitive rates in a market with a 20% vacancy factor.

THE RESULT

Directly representing the owner, and reporting to the owner's management team, we brought together a collaboration of architects from Toronto and Vancouver, and met design and cost criteria which allowed the project to be fully leased within one year of completion.
